

Titan Solicitors

ABOVE & BEYOND

Criminal Fees

Solicitors 5 years + qualified experience £220 per hour

Other qualified Solicitors £200 per hour

Trainee Solicitors and Paralegal £150 per hour

Our fee ranges vary depending on the application being made, the complexity of the matter, and the experience of our specialist advisor assisting you. We agree the fee in advance to give you peace of mind.

Our fee includes:

- Representation at the police station, magistrates court and crown court and any other recognised location where your legal rights are being observed, such as Home Office, local authority, detention centre, British transport police office etc
- Consultation about the alleged offence / offences in detail and confirming the most appropriate action
- Giving you advice about the criminal procedure rules and elements of the offence / offences.
- Advice on jurisdiction and legislation
- Advising on any issues raised by any evidence served by the crown prosecution service, probation or local authority
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records, crime scene photographs) including taking statements of any witnesses;
- Drafting legal representations such as bail applications, certificate of readiness, defence case statement, s9 and s10 statements
- Assistance in completing and submitting applications forms
- Email or phone contact to keep you up-to-date regarding your application
- Liaising, where necessary, with third parties, including the Court officials and the Crown prosecution service.
- Preparation of grounds for appeal

Our fee does not include:

- VAT (where applicable)
- Third party providers' fees
- Interpreting or translation fees
- Independent expert reports, where required
- Barristers' fees, where required
- Courier fees

Initial Consultation

- . Initial Consultation involves an in-person conference at our offices with one of our specialists, during which we take full instructions regarding your circumstances so that we can offer full advice regarding the options that are available to you. Following the consultation, we confirm our advice in a letter with details of all the options available.

Fixed fee range £150 – £500

Criminal Law

- . Police station attendance

On average, this type of work takes between 2-4 hours to complete per attendance. The average costs are between £500-£2000 depending on the location of the police station and the fee-earners hourly rate. All figures exclude VAT.

- . Magistrate court

On average, this type of work takes between 15-50 hours to complete per matter. The average costs are between £2,700-£5000 depending on the fee-earners hourly rate and complexity of the case. All figures exclude VAT.

- . Crown court

On average, this type of work takes between 40-100 hours to complete per matter. This includes all attendances relating to magistrate court. The average costs are between £15,000-£500,000 depending on the fee-earners hourly rate and complexity of the case. All figures exclude VAT.

- . Appeals

On average, this type of work takes between 5-15 hours to complete per application. The average costs are between £1,500-£5,000 depending on the fee-earners hourly rate and complexity of the case. All figures exclude VAT.